There is a definite need for an upper end, classier line of souvenirs. However, the biggest challenge is finding something nice and "Canadian-made" to give to family, friends and clients from other countries...they can't all get maple syrup!

O'Canada Gear has everything from tattoos, stickers and pins to hats, shirts, and outerwear. It's not just for Canada Day anymore...it's cool to show your "Canadian Pride"! What started as a trend towards showing you're Canadian while traveling around the world, is now in demand while staying around town, or just enjoying an event in your own backyard.

Every time there is an international sporting event such as the Olympics, soccer, hockey, or even the Grey Cup...the great Canadian game, there are people wanting to wear and wave the maple leaf. Our logos are well recognized and respected around the globe!

You now have an opportunity to become a distributor and make more money while offering your clients an extra service. One of the most lucrative ways as a distributor is to feature our 'Pride Kits'. You can view the various 'Kits' and other products we offer on our web site. These items are in demand by consumers, especially those traveling outside of Canada.

We've also developed a brand new fund-raising item called the 'Prove Your Pride Ribbon'. It's a woven satin zipper pull that can be attached to almost anything, especially luggage, zippers and automobile antennas. For more information: 'PROVEYOURPRIDE.com'.
